

building1

From: Hugh Ogilvy [HughO@Vipac.com.au]
Sent: Monday, 11 December 2006 9:51 AM
To: building1
Subject: OGILVY, 201 Broad Gully Rd, Diamond Creek

11 DEC 2006
BY:.....

Good morning!

Firstly I am just writing to say a big thankyou to everyone involved in our house in any way. We have much appreciated your work, from the office, to out on the site, and are very happy with our new home!

I am also just writing as a follow up in regard to keys. I called the office on Saturday in regard to this and I believe it is already being followed up with Lane, the key supplier. Just in case written details are required, I have given them here:

Our number "97" keys supplied at handover work perfectly on the front and rear doors, but not on the third external door in the 2nd bedroom. This lock has a number "57" on it, but we haven't been supplied with a "57" key, only "97"s. So this door is currently still on the master key system.

Once the "57" key is arranged please call me on my mobile 0413 781 764 and I will arrange to pick it up.

Thanks very much!

Best regards,

Hugh Ogilvy

VIPAC Engineers & Scientists Ltd.

COMPANY DISCLAIMER:

Please note the content of this message is commercial in confidence. If you are not the intended recipient, please delete the message from your system and send a reply back to the sender.

This company is not liable for any loss, damage, claims, cost demand or expense whatsoever and howsoever arising in connection with or out of the use of data supplied in this e-mail transmission. Whilst virus scanning software is utilised by this company, no responsibility is taken for any virus damage that may originate from this transmission, and the receiver is urged to scan this transmission and any attachments for computer viruses.