Subject: Re: Laundry Door Delivery

Hi Hayley,

I thought I had better inform you in writing that the laundry door has been delivered with the other doors, however the door should be a 6-lite door as per contract instead of the door which has been delivered. We thought it might be easier to replace now than when door is on.

The roof is now finished and looks terrific. We are extremely happy with the result thanks to Neil & Leigh.

I'm not sure if I should mention now or later, but Claude would pick it up anyway, but one of the window panels has been cracked at some stage.

I hope this is fine.

Regards

Jeff
